

Question 1	Response 1
do they get a penalty if they don't complete in 3 attempts?	No
How do the tasks get introduced / described to the children at the event?	A video of the obstacle course will be shared a week before and the specific physical activities will be available on the WESO website several days before the event. Teams are also walked through each event on the day of.
Will there be word problems for the questions? Are they all word problems?	2nd grade will not be given a word problem. They will not all be word problems.
Are any prior year coaches willing to talk about what their average practice looks like?	This would be great for discord!
Will students get a rundown of quick instructions before the event starts?	Yes
Does it matter how fast they answer the questions or only if they are right or wrong?	It impacts your total time, but it is more important to be correct
what's the difference between the obstacle course and the physical activities?	There are no differences between the terms
Where can we find the grade level math expectations?	This is available in the pentathlon event page
What if we have only four students on one team—can one student answer two questions?	No you need to have 5 individuals on the team
Any recommendations for a resource for sample grade-level math problems?	There are many resources on the internet and can ask grade-level teachers
If we are coaching kids of two different grades, will there be 2 different events for the 2 different grades?	The physical events will likely be similar across grades. There may be an increased level of difficulty at the higher grade levels
How many teams are competing this year?	There are 40 schools registered for WESO this year, but not all will compete in this event
Do you have any ideas of how chatgpt would work for generating grade standard questions?	The model and format of questions is very structured. AI has not been used to write questions - there are many materials available online
I'm sorry - I'm sure you said this, but how early do we know what the obstacle course events are?	About a week in advance